About the Parliamentary Workplace Support Service

The Parliamentary Workplace Support Service (PWSS) is a team of trusted advisors helping to build and maintain a safe, respectful, and inclusive parliamentary workplace through human resources advice, training and professional development, work, health and safety advice and trauma-informed complaint resolution and counselling.

Our terms and conditions of employment are governed by the Public Service (Terms and Conditions of Employment) (Parliamentary Workplace Support Service) Determination 2024 (the Determination). This Determination applies the terms and conditions of the Department of Finance Enterprise Agreement 2024-2027 (Finance EA).

More information about the PWSS is available on our website.

Our People and Culture

The PWSS is a friendly and inclusive workplace. We are outcomes focused and promote the APS Values and collaboration with our colleagues across Commonwealth Parliamentary Workplaces (CPWs) and the APS.

We value and champion the experiences, skills and perspectives of all employees. At the PWSS we support flexible work, including job-share, and encourage applicants from diverse backgrounds, cultures, and those with caring and parenting responsibilities to apply so we better represent the community that we serve.

We aim to increase our representation of Indigenous Australians and people with disability by having accessible processes, policies and practices, as well as utilising affirmative measures and the RecruitAbility scheme.

Ways of working

To achieve our purpose and vision, we recognise that our approach to our work is as important as what we do:

- Professionalism and Integrity: We uphold APS values by demonstrating ethical leadership, maintaining independence, and ensuring trust and confidentiality in all interactions.
- Collaboration and Tailored Solutions: We work together with colleagues and clients to deliver customised, purpose-driven solutions that address unique needs while fostering open communication and diverse perspectives.
- Continuous Improvement and Wellbeing: We are committed to continuous learning, adapting to change, and prioritising the wellbeing of all stakeholders, driving better outcomes through feedback and a culture of accountability.

What we offer

- Competitive Remuneration: Begin your journey with remuneration that reflects your skills and experience, setting the stage for a prosperous career.
- Supportive Team Culture: Join a team where collaboration is key, and support is always at hand. We are committed to creating an environment where you can thrive.
- Inclusive Workplace: At PWSS we celebrate diversity. Your unique background, skills, and perspectives are not just welcomed but essential to our collective success.
- Personal Development: Take advantage of our career development opportunities, tailored to help grow and excel in your career. These are designed to meet the professional needs of both the agency and the individual. We invest in your future because your success is our success.
- Flexibility: We understand the importance of work-life balance, offering flexible working arrangements to support your needs.
- Exceptional Facilities: Working at Australian Parliament House comes with benefits, including free undercover parking, access to an onsite gym, pool, Westpac bank, post office, physiotherapist, multiple cafes and more.

About the branch

People Branch

People Branch is responsible for providing a broad range of human resources advice and services to the clients of the PWSS - Parliamentarians and Members of Parliament (Staff) Act 1984 (MoPS Act) employees. This includes development of policies and advice on human resource matters during the employment life cycle, and advice and services related to work health and safety, and wellbeing in the workplace. The Branch is also responsible for the 24-hour independent and confidential support services provided to CPW participants.

About the team

The HR Advice Section provides advice and assistance to parliamentarians and their staff on a broad range of HR functions including recruitment, probation, restructures, performance management, termination, deferral periods, and suspension.

About the role

The HR Advice Section has an exciting 12-month opportunity at the APS6 level for a highly motivated and solutions focused HR professional with relevant skills and experience.

The successful applicant will thrive in a dynamic, fast-paced environment; contribute effectively to team priorities, demonstrate strong attention to detail, excellent communication skills and the ability to confidently manage multiple tasks and competing deadlines.

Key responsibilities:

The key duties of the position include, but are not limited to:

- Contribute to providing accurate, timely and specialist HR advice on complex matters across the employee life cycle, in alignment with PWSS objectives.
- Provide high-quality administrative and operational support by monitoring communications, processing allowance requests, supporting recruitment activities, maintaining accurate records and coordinating routine team processes to support efficient service delivery.
- Support and contribute to the implementation and continuous improvement of HR processes, including probation reporting and other emerging initiatives.

Our ideal candidate

The APS Work Level Standards (WLS) detail five (5) characteristics that contain general statements about the broad job requirements, and operating context for each classification level. The PWSS is seeking candidates who possess the following job specific skills and attributes aligned to the corresponding WLS.

Additionally, the Secretaries' Charter of Leadership Behaviours sets out the behaviours Secretaries expect of themselves and SES and want to see in leaders at all levels of the APS. Regardless of classification, you will be expected to model and champion the behaviours outlined in the Secretaries Charter of Leadership Behaviours - DRIVE.

Leadership and Accountability
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Contribute to the development of expert advice on policy, complex problem solving and issues management, in particular employment matters requiring the application of the Fair Work Act 2009; the Members of Parliament (Staff) Act 1984 (the MOP(S) Act); and the Commonwealth Members of Parliament Staff Enterprise Agreement 2024-27. • Consider and effectively manage competing priorities and strategic direction when achieving project outcomes in line with PWSS goals and initiatives.
Job Context and Environment
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attain and maintain an in-depth understanding of the role and responsibilities of the PWSS. • Monitor changes in the broader work environment that may impact on work objectives. • Work within established legislative and policy frameworks.
Independence and Decision-making
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Work with independence, subject to limited direction against established priorities, practices, and methodologies to deliver quality outcomes for the PWSS. • Make decisions with support from more senior staff that are based on an awareness of internal escalation processes, professional judgement and consideration of risks in the context of a complex and changing environment. • Work with a focus on research, analysis and judgement to support complex HR issues.
Stakeholder Management

- Engage and collaborate with key stakeholders to identify opportunities, achieve outcomes and facilitate cooperation.
- Develop and manage a range of stakeholder relationships, including through change, resolving conflict and managing sensitivities.

Management Diversity and Span

- Coordinate and undertake detailed or sensitive projects that impact on the strategic or operational outcomes of the PWSS.
- Plan and monitor work processes and coordinate quality assurance practices.

Desirable skills, experience & qualifications

Candidates with formal qualifications, certifications or experience in Human Resources or employment law will be highly regarded.

How to apply

If this opportunity sounds like it is right for you, then we invite you to submit an application through the PWSS's careers page on our website.

Your application will include:

- A 750 word pitch;
- A current CV, with a maximum of three pages;
- The details of at least two referees, one of which must be your current or most recent manager; and
- Your personal details.

If you are experiencing any difficulties submitting your application, please contact the Corporate Team via email at PWSSCorporate@PWSS.gov.au prior to the closing date.

Application pitch

The PWSS application process will require you to submit a pitch of no more than 750 words. Your pitch is your opportunity to tell us why you are the right candidate for the role, why you want to work for us, and what you can contribute.

When planning your pitch, you should take into consideration the role, key duties and attributes reflected in the 'About the role' and 'Desirable Experience' sections, and capabilities required in alignment with the Work Level Standards and Integrated Leadership System \(ILS\) profile.

Your pitch should be written in an easy-to-read font and simple, consistent format. It should build on information found in your resume by highlighting specific examples or achievements that will demonstrate your ability to perform the role.

RecruitAbility scheme

The RecruitAbility scheme applies to all PWSS vacancies. RecruitAbility encourages the employment of people with disability in the Australian Public Service (APS). You will be asked to indicate if you wish to opt into the RecruitAbility scheme in the Diversity section of the application form. You must tick the 'opt in' box to participate in the scheme.

Details about the RecruitAbility scheme can be found on the APSC website.

Privacy

The PWSS recognises and respects your privacy. Information supplied for this selection process will be handled in accordance with the Agency's Recruitment Collection Notice.

Who to contact

For more information about the role, please contact Madeleine Gregory on (02) 6277 9809 or madeleine.gregory@pwss.gov.au.

Frequently asked questions

What is RecruitAbility?

RecruitAbility is a scheme that aims to attract applicants with disability.

Under the RecruitAbility scheme you will be invited to participate in further assessments if you choose to apply under the scheme, declare that you are a person with disability and meet the minimum requirements for the advertised vacancy. More information about the RecruitAbility scheme can be found by visiting the APSC Website.

Merit remains the basis for engagement and promotion.

Can I request reasonable adjustment(s)?

Our application form provides the opportunity to request and detail any reasonable adjustment(s) to ensure you can successfully partake in any and all stages of the assessment process.

We will facilitate reasonable adjustments to ensure that you can participate equitably in the recruitment process. Reasonable adjustments are not limited to persons with a disability. For example, reasonable adjustments may include additional time to complete recruitment tasks, accessible computer hardware and software, or individual needs relating to illness or injury. Please discuss your needs with the contact officer at any stage of the recruitment process. Requests will be managed sensitively and confidentially.

If you are the successful applicant, information on workplace adjustments required will be gathered as part of our onboarding process.

How will my application be assessed?

Jobs in the Australian Public Service (APS) are classified according to expected levels of work and responsibility. For information about the expected capabilities and behaviours required, see the APS work level standards and the Integrated Leadership System \(ILS\) on the APSC website.

Your application will be assessed against the requirements of the job. Once the entire applicant pool has been assessed, the committee will create a shortlist of applicants. If your application is shortlisted, you may be asked to undertake further assessment.

What other assessment will I have to undertake?

Your application will be assessed on your ability to demonstrate that you can perform in the role, outlined in the Candidate Information Pack and in line with the relevant classification level. If your application is shortlisted, you will be progressed to a second phase of assessment.

We may use a variety of techniques to assess candidates. These may include:

- Interviews - held in person, by phone or video (MSTeams)
- Work sample tests

Your referees may also be contacted at any stage of the assessment process to validate your claims. We encourage you to advise them that you have applied for a role at the PWSS. You should feel confident that they will be able to support your application.

Am I able to request feedback?

Post-selection feedback is an integral part of all merit-based recruitment activities. Individual assessments are available to applicants upon request through the contact officer provided to applicants following the finalization of the selection process.

How do I withdraw my application?

If you have submitted an application, but no longer wish to be considered for the position, you need to withdraw your application via email to PWSSCorporate@PWSS.gov.au. Once you withdraw your application you will be unable to re-submit it without contacting PWSSCorporate@PWSS.gov.au.

If you withdraw your application after the closing date, please inform the Contact Officer using the contact officer details located on the first page of this Candidate Information Pack.

What is a merit pool or merit list?

An Order of Merit (merit list or merit pool) can be created as part of a selection process and be used to fill similar vacancies for 18 months from the date the original vacancy was advertised in the Gazette (APSJobs). If there is a ranked order of merit (list), then applicants are listed in order of suitability (first, second and so on). The first offer of employment must be made to the highest ranked applicant. Any subsequent offer of employment using the merit list to fill the same or a similar vacancy must follow the ranking.

If there is a merit pool, offers of employment must first be made to candidate(s) in the highest group (example, highly suitable and suitable). The first offer of employment is made to the most suitable person remaining in the pool, assessed against the requirements of the vacancy. Any subsequent offer of employment is made to the most suitable applicant remaining in the pool, assessed against the requirements of the same or a similar vacancy to be filled. More information can be found on the APSC website.

Merit pool sharing

The merit pool established through this recruitment process may be shared with other APS agencies at the discretion of the PWSS.

What are the PWSS salary and conditions?

Our terms and conditions of employment are governed by the Public Service (Terms and Conditions of Employment) (Parliamentary Workplace Support Service) Determination 2024 (the Determination). This Determination applies the terms and conditions of the Department of Finance Enterprise Agreement 2024-2027 (Finance EA) to all non-SES PWSS employees (APS1 to EL2).

The salary range will also be listed on the advertisement. Salaries are adjusted annually throughout the life of the agreement.

How long does the onboarding process take?

Following the recruitment process, if you are rated suitable and offered a position with the PWSS you will undergo pre-employment checks consisting of a Conflict-of-Interest Declaration form, National Criminal History check, security clearance confirmation, super eligibility and Australian Citizenship, prior to a formal offer being issued.

The onboarding timeframes can vary from 3-4 weeks, depending on your security clearance status. PWSS Corporate team will be in regular contact with you throughout the process.
