We welcome applications from across our community including, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, women, people with disability, people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds, those who identify as LGBTIQ+, mature aged employees and carers.

About the Parliamentary Workplace Support Service

The Parliamentary Workplace Support Service (PWSS) is a team of trusted advisors helping build and maintain a safe, respectful, and inclusive parliamentary workplace through human resources advice, training and professional development, work, health and safety advice and trauma-informed complaint resolution and counselling. In addition, the PWSS provides 24 hour independent and confidential support services, for all Commonwealth parliamentary workplace (CPW) participants.

Our terms and conditions of employment are governed by the Public Service (Terms and Conditions of Employment) (Parliamentary Workplace Support Service) Determination 2024 (the Determination). This Determination applies the terms and conditions of the Department of Finance Enterprise Agreement 2024-2027 (Finance EA).

More information about the PWSS is available on our website.

Our People and Culture

The PWSS is a friendly and inclusive workplace. We are outcomes focused and promote the APS Values and collaboration with our colleagues across Commonwealth Parliamentary Workplaces and the APS.

We value and champion the experiences, skills and perspectives of all employees. At the PWSS we support flexible work, including job-share, and encourage applicants from diverse backgrounds, cultures, and those with caring and parenting responsibilities to apply so we better represent the community that we serve.

We aim to increase our representation of Indigenous Australians and people with disability by having accessible processes, policies and practices, as well as utilising affirmative measures and the RecruitAbility scheme.

Ways of working

To achieve our purpose and vision, we recognise that our approach to our work is as important as what we do:

- Professionalism and Integrity: We uphold APS values by demonstrating ethical leadership, maintaining independence, and ensuring trust and confidentiality in all interactions.
- Collaboration and Tailored Solutions: We work together with colleagues and clients to deliver customised, purpose-driven solutions that address unique needs while fostering open communication and diverse perspectives.
- Continuous Improvement and Wellbeing: We are committed to continuous learning, adapting to change, and prioritising the wellbeing of all stakeholders, driving better outcomes through feedback and a culture of accountability.

What we offer

- Competitive Remuneration: Begin your journey with remuneration that reflects your skills and experience, setting the stage for a prosperous career.
- Supportive Team Culture: Join a team where collaboration is key, and support is always at hand. We are committed to creating an environment where you can thrive.
- Inclusive Workplace: At PWSS we celebrate diversity. Your unique background, skills, and perspectives are not just welcomed but essential to our collective success.
- Personal Development: Take advantage of our career development opportunities, tailored to help grow and excel in your career. These are designed to meet the professional needs of both the agency and the individual. We invest in your future because your success is our success.
- Flexibility: We understand the importance of work-life balance, offering flexible working arrangements to support your needs.
- Exceptional Facilities: Working at Australian Parliament House comes with benefits, including free undercover parking, access to an onsite gym, pool, cafes, hairdressers, Westpac Bank, post office, physiotherapist and more.

About the branch

The Chief Operating Officer (COO) Branch is responsible for the Corporate functions of the agency including financial management, legal, human resources, ICT, security and property. The Branch is also responsible for the ongoing management of the Shared Services arrangements to support the important work of the PWSS.

About the team

Our Corporate team is at the heart of ensuring the PWSS runs smoothly and efficiently. As a small team we thrive on collaboration and adaptability, managing a broad range of responsibilities that are essential to the agency's success. The team offers an exciting, fast-paced environment where every member has the chance to take ownership of projects and drive positive change. The Corporate team plays a pivotal role in shaping the agency's future.

About the role

We are seeking a highly motivated and experienced individual to join us at the EL1 level as an Assistant Director responsible for the management of shared services, ICT, information management and security for the PWSS. You will play a pivotal part in managing the shared services arrangements provided to PWSS including finance, payroll, ICT, property, and security. This is a unique opportunity to contribute to the establishment of policies and processes for a newly created agency while driving strategic outcomes and fostering a collaborative, high-performing team environment.

Key responsibilities include:

- overseeing the management of shared services with external agencies, including the management of Memorandum of Understanding agreements for the provision of these shared services;
- participating in a range of shared services forums and acting as the liaison between the agency and the shared services providers, this also includes coordination of system and ICT initiatives/projects to support the agency;
- coordinating the security and compliance related functions for the agency, ensuring alignment with Protective Security Policy Framework (PSPF) and other key governance requirements;
- contract management with various stakeholders including identifying potential suppliers, and providing support to the agency on procurement processes;
- oversee the records management function for the agency and compliance with information management legislation;
- preparing a range of internal and external reports, including completing agency surveys to ensure compliance with relevant frameworks and legislation;
- preparing formal advice, briefing materials, and agenda papers on security and compliance matters, supporting informed decision-making;
- identifying risks, opportunities, and resources needed to deliver high-quality outcomes within set timeframes and budgets;
- identifying opportunities for continuous improvement, including streamlining and simplifying practices, and updating existing policies and procedures;
- manage a small team to deliver a diverse remit; and
- other duties as required.

Our ideal candidate

The APS Work Level Standards (WLS) detail five characteristics that contain general statements about the broad job requirements, and operating context for each classification level. The PWSS is seeking candidates who possess the following job specific skills and attributes aligned to the corresponding WLS.

Additionally, the Secretaries' Charter of Leadership Behaviours sets out the behaviours Secretaries expect of themselves and SES and want to see in leaders at all levels of the APS. Regardless of classification, you will be expected to model and champion the behaviours outlined in the Secretaries Charter of Leadership Behaviours - DRIVE.

Leadership and Accountability

- Consider and effectively manage competing priorities and strategic directions when achieving planning and project outcomes in line with agency goals and objectives.

- Ensure in-depth knowledge of and compliance with legislative, financial and administrative frameworks, government decision-making processes and agency guidelines and regulations relevant to the role.
- Engage with risk, including the conduct of risk assessment and risk management activities for area of responsibility.

Job Context and Environment

- Undertake work activities with an awareness of their possible impact on strategic, political, or operational outcomes for the agency/program.
- Attain and maintain an extensive understanding of the role and responsibilities of the agency, including and understanding of the APS operating environment more broadly.

Independence and Decision-making

- Work with a level of independence, under broad direction, with a concurrent need to resolve issues and deliver quality outcomes.
- Communicate and make decisions with a high level of impact on the functional area and the potential to impact more broadly on agency operations and externally.
- Work with a focus on research, analysis and judgement to manage complex issues.

Stakeholder Management

- Engage and collaborate with key stakeholders to identify opportunities, achieve outcomes, and facilitate cooperation.
- Establish and maintain effective, professional relationships and communicate with influence with a broad range of internal and external stakeholders.
- Represent and explain the views of the agency at cross-agency meetings and other forums.
- Manage stakeholders through change, resolving conflict and managing sensitivities.

Management Diversity and Span

- Manage a small number of employees performing diverse tasks.
- Coordinate and undertake detailed or sensitive projects that impact on the strategic or operational outcomes of the agency.
- Plan and monitor work processes, direct and coordinate quality assurance practices and set performance indicators.

Desirable skills, experience & qualifications

We are seeking a dynamic and results-driven candidate who excels in a multifaceted environment and is passionate about contributing to the success and growth of a new agency. This role offers an excellent opportunity for individuals with broad corporate experience, particularly those who have worked in smaller APS or government agencies and led high-performing teams. Expertise in contract management (preferably with shared services), ICT, or security will be highly regarded.

How to apply

If this opportunity sounds like it is right for you, then we invite you to submit an application through the PWSS careers page on our website.

Your application will include:

- A 750-word pitch for the role you are applying for;
- A current CV, with a maximum of three pages.
- The details of at least two referees, one of which must be your current or most recent manager; and
- Your personal details.

If you are experiencing any difficulties submitting your application, please contact the Corporate Team via email to PWSSCorporate@PWSS.gov.au prior to the closing date.

Application pitch

The PWSS application process will require you to submit a pitch of no more than 750 words. Your pitch is your opportunity to tell us why you are the right candidate for the role, why you want to work for us, and what you can contribute.

When planning your pitch, you should take into consideration the role, key duties and attributes reflected in the “About the role” and ‘Our Ideal Candidate’ and ‘Qualifications/Desirable Experience’ sections and capabilities required in alignment with the Work Level Standards and Integrated Leadership System \(ILS\) profile.

Your pitch should be written in an easy-to-read font and simple, consistent format. Build on information found in your resume by highlighting specific examples or achievements that will demonstrate your ability to perform the role.

RecruitAbility scheme

The RecruitAbility scheme applies to all PWSS vacancies. RecruitAbility encourages the employment of people with disability in the Australian Public Service (APS). You will be asked to indicate if you wish to opt into the RecruitAbility scheme in the Diversity section of the application form. You must tick the ‘opt in’ box to participate in the scheme.

Details about the RecruitAbility scheme can be found on the APSC website.

Privacy

The PWSS recognises and respects your privacy. Information supplied for this selection process will be handled in accordance with the Agency’s Recruitment Collection Notice.

Who to contact

For more information about the role, please contact Emma Da Silva on 0498 247 140 or email Emma.DaSilva@PWSS.gov.au.

Frequently asked questions

What is RecruitAbility?

RecruitAbility is a scheme that aims to attract applicants with disability.

Under the RecruitAbility scheme you will be invited to participate in further assessments if you choose to apply under the scheme, declare that you are a person with disability and meet the minimum requirements for the advertised vacancy. More information about the RecruitAbility scheme can be found by visiting the APSC Website.

Merit remains the basis for engagement and promotion.

Can I request reasonable adjustment(s)?

If you identify as a person with disability, our application form provides the opportunity to request and detail any reasonable adjustment(s) to ensure you can successfully partake in any and all stages of the assessment process.

We will facilitate reasonable adjustments to ensure that you can participate equitably in the recruitment process. Reasonable adjustments are not limited to persons with disability. For example, reasonable adjustments may include additional time to complete recruitment tasks, accessible computer hardware and software, or individual needs relating to illness or injury. Please discuss your needs with the contact officer at any stage of the recruitment process. Requests will be managed sensitively and confidentially.

If you are the successful applicant, information on workplace adjustments required will be gathered as part of our onboarding process.

How will my application be assessed?

Jobs in the Australian Public Sector are classified according to expected levels of work and responsibility. For information about the expected capabilities and behaviours required, see the APS work level standards and the Integrated Leadership System (ILS) on the APSC website.

Your application will be assessed against the requirements of the job. Once the entire applicant pool has been assessed, the committee will create a shortlist of applicants. If your application is shortlisted, you may be asked to undertake further assessment.

What other assessment will I have to undertake?

Your application will be assessed on your ability to demonstrate that you can perform in the role, outlined in the Candidate Information Pack and in line with the relevant classification level. If your application is shortlisted, you will be progressed to a second phase of assessment.

We may use a variety of techniques to assess candidates. These may include:

- Interviews - held in person, by phone or video (MSTeams)
- Work sample tests

Your referees may also be contacted at any stage of the assessment process to validate your claims. We encourage you to advise them that you have applied for a role at the PWSS. You should feel confident that they will be able to support your application.

Am I able to request feedback?

Post-selection feedback is an integral part of all merit-based recruitment activities. Individual assessments are available to applicants upon request via PWSSCorporate@PWSS.gov.au.

How do I withdraw my application?

If you have submitted an application, but no longer wish to be considered for the position, you need to withdraw your application via email to PWSSCorporate@PWSS.gov.au. Once you withdraw your application you will be unable to re-submit it without contacting PWSSCorporate@PWSS.gov.au.

If you withdraw your application after the closing date, please inform the Contact Officer using the contact officer details located on the second page of this Candidate Information Pack.

What is a merit pool or merit list?

A merit list, or merit pool can be created as part of a selection process and be used to fill similar vacancies for 18 months from the date the original vacancy was advertised in the Gazette (APSJobs). If there is a ranked order of merit (list), then applicants are listed in order of suitability (first, second and so on). The first offer of employment must be made to the highest ranked applicant. Any subsequent offer of employment using the merit list to fill the same or a similar vacancy must follow the ranking.

If there is a merit pool, offers of employment must first be made to candidate(s) in the highest group (example, highly suitable and suitable). The first offer of employment is made to the most suitable person remaining in the pool, assessed against the requirements of the vacancy. Any subsequent offer of employment is made to the most suitable applicant remaining in the pool, assessed against the requirements of the same or a similar vacancy to be filled. More information can be found on the APSC website.

Merit pool sharing

The merit pool established through this recruitment process may be shared with other APS agencies at the discretion of the PWSS.

What are the PWSS salary and conditions?

Our terms and conditions of employment are governed by the Public Service (Terms and Conditions of Employment) (Parliamentary Workplace Support Service) Determination 2024 (the Determination). This Determination applies the terms and conditions of the Department of Finance Enterprise Agreement 2024-2027 (Finance EA) to all non-SES PWSS employees (APS1 to EL2).

The salary range will also be listed on the advertisement. Salaries are adjusted annually throughout the life of the agreement.

How long does the onboarding process take?

Following the recruitment process, if you are rated suitable and offered a position with the PWSS you will undergo pre-employment checks consisting of a Conflict-of-Interest Declaration form, National Criminal History check, security clearance confirmation, super eligibility and Australian Citizenship, prior to a formal offer being issued.

The onboarding timeframes can vary from 3-4 weeks, depending on your security clearance status. PWSS Corporate team will be in regular contact with you throughout the process.
